Interview Questions

Why are you interested in the position you have applied for? Give specifics.

What specific skills or personality traits do you possess that you believe would make you an asset to camp Tapawingo this summer?

(organized, energetic, calm, get along with others, multi tasking, outgoing)

Share any previous experience you have working with children:

List some qualities a 'good role model' on staff would have:

Are you currently involved with church or your faith community? if so how?

What would you like your campers to say about you or Tapawingo on the way home from camp?

How would you deal with any conflict with another staff member this summer?

---

For returning Staff only

Explain what draws you to working at camp
again this summer:

What do you have to offer as returning staff?

What do you hope to gain?

What have you done to work on your leadership skills since leaving camp last summer?

Any thing you would
change about how you fulfilled your duties last year?

Anything you would
change about how you
conducted yourself with the campers or staff?

---

Duties and Responsibilities

Are you comfortable with the following?

- the responsibility of care of campers 24 hours while camp is in session
- time off being Saturday afternoon to Monday morning with a limited amount of down time during each day.
- putting campers needs and concerns above your own at all times
- working together as a team with the other staff members
- addressing any conflict or concerns with other staff head on in a mature manner
- taking direction from the program director or camp committee member
- planning, organizing and implementing activities appropriate for the age of campers in your care for each session ? (7 year olds to 16 year olds) Activity times, cabin times, vespers and campfire.
- Camp Tapawingo being a United Church camp and implementing, teaching and providing guidance during bible study times and vespers and in general through the ministry that Camp Tapawingo is
- recognizing that you are at all times a role model to all campers in each session and acting as such at all times

(With regard to personal conduct, conduct between male/female staff, appropriate music selections in cabins and at other camp wide activities, participation in all activities, following the same rules the campers are expected to follow, treating all campers equally and with the same love and patience a parent would show and by helping to solve conflict within your cabin group or the larger group in a fair and Christian manner)
